

Feathered friends

Beaks and wings are popular motifs in this season's jewellery collections, as these bird-inspired pieces show

Shaun Leane

The new Eagle collection from Shaun Leane includes this pendant. Made in silver and gold plate and set with topaz, matching earrings are also available. Retail price is £1,155 Shaun Leane/ 020 7405 4773

Conroy Wilcox

These 18ct yellow gold Swallow stud earrings are from Conroy Wilcox. Designers behind the brand are Irish-born Gillian Conroy and US-born Danica Wilcox, who are now based in New York. Retail price is £265/ Conroy Wilcox/ +1 212 941 5634

Stephen Webster

The Fly by Night collection from Stephen Webster includes this Griffin's Lair pendant. Inspired by the mythical creature with the body of a lion and the head and wings of an eagle, this piece comes in yellow gold and is set with smoky quartz, champagne diamonds and ruby eyes. Retail price is £4,225/ Stephen Webster/ 020 7486 6575

Alex Monroe

A finalist in the Jewellery Designer of the Year category at this year's UK Jewellery Awards, Alex Monroe has produced this sterling silver pendant. It depicts two birds on a branch, one with its wing around the other, with a small passion flower on the circle. Wholesale price is £35 in silver, £40 in gold-plated silver/ Alex Monroe 020 7703 8507

Emma Franklin

A black pearl necklace from Emma Franklin features a sterling silver, gold-plated bird pendant as the centrepiece. Retail price is £280/ Emma Franklin/ 07779 728979

PHOTOGRAPHER: SIMON ARMITT

Christine Kaltoft

The latest collection from designer Christine Kaltoft is inspired by her love of birds and her experiences as a new jeweller. This one-off brooch is laser-welded from silver, 18ct gold and walnut and will be on sale at London's Goldsmiths' Fair. Retail price £395/ Catherine Kaltoft/ 07967 636497